Annual Toys for Tots equally fun for givers and receivers

This year's Toys for Tots event featured a fun twist: a gift exchange. Participants drew names and bought a toy that reflected the person's individuality or career. For example, DCD Commander, Col. Frederick Pellissier, received a toy tank with toy soldiers; and an employee who enjoys horses received My Little Pony figurines. The unwrapped gifts were then donated to Toys for Tots.

Approximately 50 gifts were collected. DCD has been participating in the program, which gives the toys to needy children, for more than 10 years.

Col. Billington Tours TOCDF

Colonel Robert B. Billington, U.S. Army Chemical Materials Agency Program Manager for Chemical Stockpile Elimination (CSE), toured the Tooele Chemical Agent Disposal Facility (TOCDF) Dec. 12, 2007. It was his first visit to the site.

During a meet-and-greet session with field office staff, Col. Billington said that his TOCDF tour played a vital role in his efforts to learn as much as possible about the chemical weapons disposal campaign.

Prior to being selected as Project Manager for CSE, Col. Billington served as Chief, Joint U.S. Military Affairs Group-Korea (JUSMAG-K), and was assigned as Director, Defense Cooperation in Armaments, and Deputy Chief, JUSMAG-K.

Col. Billington is scheduled to return to the TOCDF in March 2008.
